Dutton Park State School Uniform Policy

Dutton Park State School is a "uniform school" where all children are required to wear the school uniform every day and when representing the school.

Our school provides a number of uniform options for all students, including unisex. On regular school days and at off-campus, representative activities, students may choose to wear:

- Polo shirt in royal blue with school logo
- Royal blue and white stripe shirt with collar
- Royal blue shorts, culottes or pants
- Royal blue and white stripe dress
- If a headscarf, hijab or underclothes are worn, it is preferable that they are royal blue in colour
- Closed in style shoes
- Royal blue zip front jacket with school logo
- Royal blue wide brimmed hat with school logo must be worn outdoors
- Year 6 students may also choose a Year 6 shirt organised by the school each year

On school sports carnivals, cross country and swimming carnivals, students may choose from the above options, but are encouraged to wear a school sports t-shirt in either light blue or yellow (for Bowen or Herbert).

Upon initial enrolment at our school, in special circumstances and after cashing in as a prize at PBL, some considerations may be made to the wearing of the school uniform.
